NORTH CAROLINA 4-H CONGRESS 2017

On June 29th through August 1st, 4-H'ers gathered from across the state for NC 4-H Congress 2017. Honor Club members in attendance kicked off their evening at Congress on Saturday with a business meeting, where the new Board was introduced, the dates for Honor Club Conference 2018 were announced (see back for details), and members voted on updates to the Constitution and By-Laws. The Tapping Ceremony was also held on Saturday evening during the Opening Assembly. We welcomed 42 outstanding inductees into Honor Club this year, and friends and family traveled from near and far to tap them in and celebrate their accomplishments! Following tapping, the annual Rebecca Parker Murray Reception was held for members and their families to enjoy cake and light refreshments. We'd like to extend a huge thank you to those who helped put on the reception! We had 48 volunteers, as well as around 30 parents, 10 agents, and several 4-H delegates attending Congress who also assisted with tapping. It was great to see so many familiar faces!

On Monday evening, members helped with State 4-H Officer Elections. We'd like to congratulate the 2017-2018 State Officers, all four of whom are Honor Club members! We're excited to have them representing NC 4-H this year. The night was brought to a close with the Candlelight Clover Ceremony, a timeless Honor Club tradition. We look forward to 4-H Congress 2018!
